"Introductory Course to a 4-Year Foundation Training in Therapeutic Singing"
Friday August 9 - Monday August 11, 2024
at "Trillium," Camphill Glenora Farm on beautiful Vancouver Island

Introduction to the 3rd Therapeutic Singing Training in North America. You are warmly invited a wonderful weekend retreat with Therapeutic Singing exercises from the School of Uncovering the Voice, Choir Singing, and Bothmer Gymnastics.

"This course is designed for anyone familiar with the Anthroposophical view of the world plus who has some experience or desire to know the School of Uncovering the Voice. This introductory course is also designed to be an introduction to a 4-year training with certification in therapeutic singing upon completion."

Stefanie Aurig works internationally as a teacher for the new art of therapeutic singing. She joined the Raphael School for Singing and Singing Therapy in Germany with the founder, Thomas Adam, who taught two 4-year courses of therapeutic singing in North America. Since 2009, she has taught courses and workshops in Germany, Brazil, Australia, Switzerland, and most recently in Finland.

This year she was invited to conduct a workshop for doctors in Singing Therapy and the 7 Life Processes. She has vast experience as a music therapist and teacher working in schools, hospitals, palliative care, Elder homes, and in her own practice with private patients. She performs with her husband, Solco Aurig, in "Duo Cantecleer". Solco is also a colleague of the Raphael School for Singing and Singing Therapy.
