

Stories, Poems and Meditations

Karl König

Alongside his work with the Camphill movement, Karl König was a prolific writer. This book contains:

- A selection of his creative work
- Meditative verses
- Verses for specific occasions
- Twenty-four poems
- Four stories for children
- Ten other short stories, including his 'Christmas Story'

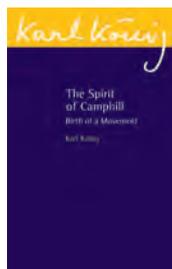

An extensive introductory essay explores the cultural environments in which König was writing – including Vienna in the early twentieth century, and the challenging times leading up to and during the Second World War – and demonstrates the creative development of his literary work using various texts and diary entries.
