

Karl König work week and meeting of board of trustees of the Karl König Institute at the Archives in Camphill Aberdeen
Monday 31st July to Friday 4th August, 2023

After three years of inactivity enforced by the pandemic, we are again able to meet at the archives in Camphill House, on Murtle Estate and Newton Dee House, to get on with much urgent archiving work. This time, the Karl König Archive team is joined by the trustees of the Karl König Institute, Berlin, some of whom have never yet been where the Camphill movement was born and where Karl König spent the largest part of his life, and created much of the substance of our archives.

The participants are (in accidental order):

Anne Weise, Dornach, Switzerland
Cherry How, Omagh, Northern Ireland
Regine Bruhn, Berlin
Brigitta Waldow-Schily, Berlin
Anita Pedersen, Lautenbach, Germany
Nina Binder, Berlin
Richard Steel, Berlin
Crispian Villeneuve, Belfast
Cornelius Pietzner, Vienna
Christoph Hanni, Aberdeen

We will engage in the nitty-gritty of archiving work, like scanning, recording and ordering material, meet to discuss the issues at hand and make connections with the local communities who host the physical archives. And we will find time to explore some locations of historical importance for our work and Scotlands spiritual past, and get a feel for what life is like in the area of Aberdeen.
